

Nagasaki University of Foreign Studies - JASIN Program
Housing Policy (Spring 2019)

1. All students must live in accommodation approved by the JASIN Program.
2. All students are expected to abide by the rules and regulations of their housing situation. Failure to do so could jeopardize the student's standing at the university.
3. In their first term all students must live in accommodation arranged by the Program.
4. In their second term, students may live in housing they arrange themselves.
5. A student who originally chose the dormitory may petition the Program to move to a host family.
6. The above mentioned petition is in no way guaranteed. Decisions will be made based on the appropriateness of the petition and on availability.
7. All housing options are subject to availability.
